Matriculation to College 2012

Essa Mohalla has completed the counselling and we follow up with children who appeared in SSC-II (Matriculation) exams of 2012. And as always, our objective is to follow up with ALL the children and not just those who are on Financial Assistance.

17 children were identified in Essa Mohalla who appeared in SSC-II exams this year. Follow up started as early as May 2012 and is continuing even now.

A summary of these 17 children is as follows;

Enrolled in Colleges	14

Failed Matric	01

All the children enrolled have opted for government colleges. The Mohalla is actively following up on the student who failed in Matric, and the student has confirmed that she will appear in supplementary exams and is preparing for them.

Choice of study of these 16 children is as follows;
